PART II -- WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(Check one or both, as applicable.)

- ☐ (1) I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence as to danger that:
- ☒ (2) I find by a preponderance of the evidence as to risk of flight that:
- ☒ The defendant is not a citizen of the United States.
 - ☐ The defendant, at the time of the charged offense, was in the United States illegally.
 - ☐ The defendant has no significant contacts in the United States or in the District of Arizona.
 - ☐ The defendant has no resources in the United States from which he/she might make a bond reasonably calculated to assure his/her future appearance.
 - ☐ The defendant has a prior criminal history.
 - ☐ The defendant lives and works in Mexico.
 - ☐ The defendant is an amnesty applicant but has no substantial ties in Arizona or in the United States and has substantial family ties to Mexico.
 - ☐ There is a record of prior failure to appear in court as ordered.
 - ☐ The defendant attempted to evade law enforcement contact by fleeing from law enforcement.
 - ☒ The defendant is facing a minimum mandatory of 10 years of incarceration and a maximum of .
- ☐ The defendant does not dispute the information contained in the Pretrial Services Report, except:
- ☒ In addition:
The Pretrial Service report shows no known employment for Mr. Grimaldi and contains no address history. No evidence of ties to the United States was presented to the Court. According to the pretrial report, Defendant possesses a B1/B2 travel visa. The nature and seriousness of the offenses is significant. The weight of the evidence (the least important factor) is strong based upon the statements in the probable cause affidavit of the Complaint. This is a presumption of detention case and no evidence has been presented to refute the presumption. The Court finds that Defendant is flight risk for which no conditions will reasonably secure his future attendance at trial.

The Court incorporates by reference the findings in the Pretrial Services Report which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter.

PART III -- DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

PART IV -- APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before the District Judge. Pursuant to Rule 59, FED.R.CRIM.P., Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this order or after the oral order is stated on the record within which to file specific written objections with the District Court. Failure to timely file objections may waive the right to review. See Rule 59, FED.R.CRIM.P.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing before the District Judge to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the potential third party custodian.

Dated this 29th day of August, 2019.

Honorable John Z. Boyle
United States Magistrate Judge
